

CENTRE FOR REGIONAL STUDIES OF HUNGARIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES

DISCUSSION PAPERS
SPECIAL

Role of the Regions in the Enlarging European Union

Edited by Zoltán GÁL

Series editor

Zoltán GÁL

Pécs
2001

© HAS Centre for Regional Studies

This volume includes the lectures of the international conference entitled “Role of the Regions in the Enlarging European Union” was held between 27 and 29th of May 1999 in Pécs. The conference was organised by the Transdanubian Research Institute (TRI) of the Centre for Regional Studies (CRS) in co-operation with the European Centre for Research on Federalism (ECRF) at the University of Tuebingen, Germany.

The Friedrich Ebert Foundation supported the conference.

ISBN 963 9052 15 9

ISSN 0238–2008

Publishing: HAS Centre for Regional Studies
Type-setting: HAS Centre for Regional Studies
Transdanubian Research Institute, Pécs
Translator: Herczegné Süle Katalin
Technical editor: Csapó Ilona
Printing House: Sümegi Nyomdaipari,
Kereskedelmi és Szolgáltató Kft.

CONTENTS

Preface / 5

European Regional Policy and the East-Central European Enlargement / 7
Gyula Horváth

Regions and Regional Policy in Central and South-East Europe / 17
Iván Illés

Regional Development in the Czech Republic: Taking Historical Development
Into Consideration / 25
Eugenie Trützscher v. Falkenstein

Regional Policy in the Czech Republic / 32
Michaela Brizova

New Polish Regions in the Process of the European Spatial Development / 46
Maciej Borsia

Regional Development in the Romanian Border Areas / 61
Simona Pascariu

The Role of Regions of the South-Eastern Space in the Enlarging European Union / 81
Gesho Geshev

Local Government in Slovenia (With Special Regard to Regionalisation) / 101
Miha Brejc–Stane Vljaj

Recent Trends in the Russian Regional Policy and Use of the EU Countries'
Experience / 113
Sergey Artobolevskiy

Regional Policy in Ukraine: Challenges of Transition / 124
Serhiy Maksymenko

Political Challenges of Regionalism in Hungary / 137
Ilona Pálné Kovács

Increasing Role of the Regions Within the Hungarian Spatial Structure / 146

László Hrubí

Spatial Planning in the Light of the European Integration / 157

László Faragó

Potential Possibilities of Transborder Co-operation After Hungary's Accession to the European Union / 172

Zoltán Hajdú

From a Fiction to the Implementation: Regional Transport / 182

Ferenc Erdősi

Rethinking Regional Governance and Planning / 194

Henk Voogd

Local Governments and "Strategic" Development Strategies: the Issue of Regional Governance / 214

James W. Scott

Contributors / 233